1. Port of Loading, Cargo, Port of Discharge.	1	laytime.	81
The said Vessel, being suitable for mechanical loading and grab discharge, shall with all convenient speed sail and proceed to the loading port or ports inserted in Box 18 or so near thereto as she may safely get, and there load always safe and afloat provided that the Vessel's draft does not exceed the permissible draft as indicated in Box 18, in the customary manner, as and where ordered by the Agents of the Charterers a full and complete cargo as described in Box 36. Being so loaded the Vessel shall therewith proceed with all convenient speed to the discharging port or ports inserted in Box 19 as ordered on signing Bills of Lading, but the Charterers shall latest number of days as indicated in Box 19 before the Vessel's expected arrival at the port of discharge have liberty to require the Owners to order the Vessel to another port named herein or within the range specified herein by telegram or wireless, or so near thereto as she may safely get, and there discharge the cargo always safe and afloat provided that the Vessel's draft does not exceed the permissible draft as indicated in Box 19, as customary alongside any wharf and/or craft as directed by the Charterers.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	If the loading be commenced earlier, laytime for loading shall count from actual commencement. Loading time. Cargo to be loaded at the average rate as stated in Box 26, weather permitting. Laytime for loading to be calculated on the basis of Bill of Lading weight decided as per clause 2 at the port or ports of loading. Notice of readiness, Commencement of laytime at discharging port. Laytime for discharge to commence number of hours as indicated in Box 25 after the Vessel is in all respects ready to discharge and notice of readiness to discharge is given as per Box 23. If discharging berth be occupied and the Vessel be compelled to wait for berth on the Vessel's arrival at or off the port of discharge or so near thereto as she may be permitted to approach, the Vessel shall be entitled to give notice of readiness after arrival there provided that free pratique has been granted. But, if the Vessel be compelled to wait for berth outside the quarantine area by an order of port authorities, the Vessel shall be entitled to give notice of readiness after arrival there subject to free pratique being granted prior to or on arrival at berth. Actual time occupied in moving from place of waiting to discharging berth not to count as laytime. If the discharge be commenced earlier, laytime for discharge shall count from actual commencement. Discharging time. Cargo to be discharged at the average rate as stated in Box 27, weather permitting. Laytime for discharge to be calculated on the basis of outturn weight decided as per clause 2 at the port or ports of discharge. Time and expense for opening and closing hatches. Time lost for opening and closing hatches at the time of the commencement and the end of working at both loading and discharging ports not to count as laytime and such opening and closing hatches shall be at the Owners' risks and expenses. Laytime for loading and discharge. Laytime for loading and discharge to be non-reversible.	82 83 84 85 86 87 88 89 90 91 92 93 94 95 96 97 98 99 100 101 102 103 104 105 106 107 108 109 110 111 112 113 114 115 116 117 118 119 120 121

voyage to the port or ports of loading or after her	233	position and at the same time request the Charterers by	315
arrival there, the Master or the Owners may ask the	234	radio for revised orders. Immediately upon receipt of	316
Charterers to declare, that they agree to reckon the	235	such request, the Charterers shall give orders for the	317

Vessel either to proceed to nearby accessible port or to any other port or ports or place or places outside the range of loading ports established under the provision of this charterparty. On loading of the cargo at such port or ports or place or places, freight shall be paid at the rate applicable under this charterparty to such loading port or ports or place or places and in addition any period by which the time taken to reach such port or ports or place or places exceeds the time which would have been taken had the Vessel proceeded there direct shall be paid for by the Charterers at the rate of demurrage as specified in Box 28 per day of 24 running hours or pro rate for any part thereof, plus the cost of any additional bunkers consumed, all other conditions as per this charterparty.

If during loading the Master, for fear of the Vessel being frozen in, deems it advisable to leave, he has liberty to do so with what cargo he has on board and to proceed to any other port or ports with option of completing cargo for the Owners' benefit for any port or ports including port of discharge. Any part cargo thus loaded under this charterparty to be forwarded to destination at the Vessel's expense but against payment of freight, provided that no extra expenses be thereby caused to the Receivers, freight being paid on quantity delivered (in proportion if lumpsum). If there is neither nearby and accessible port or ports nor any substituted port or ports, the Charterers shall pay dead-freight caused thereby.

In case of ice preventing the Vessel from reaching or entering the port of discharge, the Charterers shall have the option of keeping the Vessel waiting until the reopening of navigation paying demurrage, or of ordering the Vessel to safe and immediately accessible nearby port or ports where she can safely discharge without risk of detention on account of ice. Such orders to be sent within 48 hours after receipt of the Master's telegraphic information to the Charterers of the impossibility of reaching the port or ports of destination. On delivery of the cargo at such port or ports, all conditions of this charterparty shall apply and the Vessel shall receive the same freight as if she had discharged at the original port or ports of destination, except that if the additional sailing distance exceeds 100 nautical miles, the freight on the cargo delivered at the substituted port or ports to be increased in proportion.

24. War risks.

1. The Master shall not be required or bound to sign Bills of Lading for any blockaded port or for any port which the Master or the Owners in his or their discretion consider dangerous or impossible to enter or reach.

2. (a) If any port of loading or of discharge named in this charterparty or to which the Vessel may properly be ordered pursuant to the terms of the Bills of Lading be blockaded, or

(b) If owing to any war, hostilities, warlike operations, civil war, civil commotions, revolutions, or the operation of international law a) entry to any such port of loading or of discharge or the loading or discharge of cargo at any such port be considered by the Master or the Owners in his or their discretion dangerous or prohibited or b) it be considered by the Master or the Owners in his or their discretion dangerous or impossible for the Vessel to reach any such port of loading or of discharge - the Charterers shall have the right to order the Vessel or the cargo or such part of it as may be affected to be loaded or discharged at any other safe port of loading or of discharge within the range of loading or discharging ports respectively established under the provision of this charterparty (provided such other port is not blockaded or that entry thereto or loading or discharge of cargo thereat is not in the Master's or the Owners' discretion dangerous or prohibited). If there is no range of loading ports agreed this charterparty to be considered cancelled for the voyage in question.

If part cargo has already been loaded and no range of loading ports being agreed, the Owners must proceed with same, (freight payable on loaded quantity only) having liberty to complete with other cargo on the way for their own account.

If in respect of a port of discharge no orders be received from the Charterers within 48 hours after they or their Agents have received from the Owners a request for the nomination of a substitute port, the Owners shall then be at liberty to discharge the cargo at any safe port which they or the Master may in their or his discretion decide on (whether within the range of discharging ports established under the provisions of this charterparty or not) and such discharge shall be deemed to be due fulfilment of the contract or contracts of affreightment so far as cargo so discharged is concerned. In the event of the cargo being loaded or discharged at any such other port within the respective range of loading or discharging ports established under the provisions of this charterparty, this charterparty shall be read in respect of freight and all other conditions whatsoever as if the voyage performed were that originally designated. In the event, however, that the Vessel discharges the cargo at a port outside the range of discharging ports established under the provisions of this charterparty, freight shall be paid as for the voyage originally designated and all extra expenses involved in reaching the actual port of discharge and/or discharging the cargo thereat shall be paid by the Charterers or cargo owners. In this latter event the Owners shall have a lien on the cargo for all such extra expenses.

3. The Vessel shall have liberty to comply with any directions or recommendations as to departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, destinations, zones, waters, delivery or in any other wise whatsoever given by the government of the nation under whose flag the Vessel sails or any other government or local authority including any de facto government or local authority or by any person or body acting or purporting to act as or with the authority of any such government or authority or by any committee or person having under the terms of the war risks insurance on the Vessel the right to give any such directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with any such directions or recommendations, anything is done or is not done such shall not be deemed a deviation. If by reason of or in compliance with any such direction or recommendation the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports of discharge originally designated or to which she may have been ordered pursuant to the terms of the Bills of Lading, the Vessel may proceed to any safe port of discharge which the Master or the Owners in his or their discretion may decide on and there discharge the cargo. Such discharge shall be deemed to be due fulfilment of the contract or contracts of affreightment and the Owners shall be entitled to freight as if discharge has been effected at the port or ports originally designated or to which the Vessel may have been ordered pursuant to the terms of the Bills of Lading. All extra expenses involved in reaching and discharging the cargo at any such other port of discharge shall be paid by the Charterers and/or cargo owners and the Owners shall have a lien on the cargo for freight and all such expenses.

25. War clause.

(Section (a) and (b) are optional but section (b) to apply if section (a) not specifically agreed in Box 40.)

(a) In the event of war involving two or more of the countries as indicated in Box 40, either party to have the right to cancel this charterparty.

(b) If a world war breaks out or a situation arises that is similar to a world war, either party shall have the right to cancel this charterparty.

26. Brokerage.

A commission of the number of percentage as stated in Box 42 on the earned amount of freight and dead-freight is payable by the Owners as per Box 42.

27. Arbitration.

Unless otherwise indicated in Box 43, any dispute arising from this charterparty shall be submitted to arbitration held in Tokyo by the Tokyo Maritime Arbitration Commission (TOMAC) of The Japan Shipping Exchange, Inc. in accordance with the Rules of TOMAC and any amendment thereto, and the award given by the arbitrators shall be final and binding on both parties.
